U.S. Department of Justice

Federal Bureau of Investigations

Criminal Investigative Division

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

Prepared by:
Special Agent, Martin024141

Approved by:
CID Command

Disclaimer and Information Page

Information Disclosure

The following document is protected by the 18th U.S. Code, Section 798 which protects all documentation in regards to investigations and intelligence. In addition to the protection from the 18th U.S. Code, Section 798, the following document is also protected by the 18th U.S. Code, Section 1905 which clearly dictates that any employee of the United States of America who discloses any information regarding an investigation or examination shall be imprisoned and removed from their office and position.

Release of Information Disclaimer

The following document may only be released and thus declassified by the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, Associate Attorney General of the Criminal Division, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Deputy Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Chief of Staff of the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Commander to the Criminal Investigative Division. Optionally, this document may also be released and thus declassified by any individual which has been given consent to do so by those previously stated.

Validity of Investigation

The following investigation was conducted in accordance with the standards regarding investigative procedures put forth by the Federal Bureau of Investigation under the approval of the Department of Justice. This investigation has been authorized through the 28th U.S. Code, Section 533 which authorizes the Attorney General to appoint officials in order to assist in the detection and prosecution of crimes and to conduct other investigations on behalf of the Department of Justice. In accordance with the 28th U.S. Code, Section 533, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has the authority to initiate an investigation regarding any federal criminal violation unless otherwise exclusively assigned to another federal agency.

Federal Bureau of Investigation
The United States vs. BoulderAimbotter
Case Number # TBD
December 26th, 2023

On December 3rd, 2023, the Federal Bureau of Investigation was provided with evidence in regard to a case that displays BoulderAimbotter committing a crime. On December 26th, 2023, the Federal Bureau of Investigation initiated an investigation in regards to the case and the evidence attached.

The evidence in regards to this case is as follows:
Criminal Case Evidence #1

- https://medal.tv/games/roblox/clips/1yGXeTEzAPgQDk/d1337CAnzROL?invite=cr-MSw5ZUMsMjYzOTA0OTgs

The results of the investigation are as follows:
Criminal Case Evidence #1 -

- Timestamp 0:08
  - At this time within the video, the defendant shoots and kills an individual (7NightFall7) who is seated in the back of a BCSO Lancelot service vehicle, the defendant used a Guerra 90 for the murder.
- Timestamp 0:09
  - At this time within the video, the defendant is seen shooting and killing an active Colorado National Guard serviceman (Martin024141) with a Guerra 90.
- Timestamp 0:12
  - At this time within the video, the defendant is seen killing CNG serviceman 'JoshuaNomikos' with a Guerra 90.
- Timestamp 0:11
  - At this time within the video, the defendant is seen possessing a Guerra 90, a machine gun.

Based on the evidence aforementioned, the Federal Bureau of Investigation recommends that the Department of Justice files the following charges, against the following individuals:

- It is recommended that the defendant, BoulderAimbotter, is charged with:

- Murder ON 3 Counts - 18 U.S. Code § 1111(a) murder in the second degree.
- Unlawful Acts [FIREARMS] on 1 Count - 18 U.S. Code § 922(o)

Pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on December 26th, 2023.

Martin024141
/s/ Martin024141

Special Agent
Criminal Investigations Division
Federal Bureau of Investigation